

Gerald Francis lives in Gilfach Goch and is the son of a Measteg Miner. Married with 4 children and 4 grandchildren, Gerald, a heating and plumbing engineer by trade, now lectures college. Gerald was a councillor for years at county and district level prior to moving back to Wales. Gerald has always been community spirited and most recently chaired the successful Gilfach Green Valley Action Group in their recent fight.

Gerald believes that our communities possess enormous amounts of untapped talent and potential.
